

PATRICK FLYNNE, Gate-keeper, New Suspension Bridge.

Born at Niagara Falls, Ont., in 1855. He has been connected with the bridge company in various capacities for several years.

EXCHANGE HOTEL, John Durnin, Prop., South Side N. Y. C. Depot, Suspension Bridge, N. Y. Terms, $2 per day, single meals, 50c.

The "Exchange," briefly noted above, is too well known amongst the traveling public to need more than this notice. It has 35 sleeping-rooms, accommodation for 40 guests, and all the best modern conveniences, and is liberally patronized. Mr. John Durnin has carried on business here 17 years, is a native of Ireland, and was born in 1856.

Any of our readers who may stop here will endorse our opinion that the "Exchange" compares favorably with the best hotels at Suspension Bridge.

S. B. ESHELMAN, Dealer in Flour, Meal, Feed, Oil Meal, Seeds, United States Block, Lewiston avenue, Suspension Bridge, N. Y.

Amongst the many growing industries of the Village of Suspension Bridge, indicating the expansion of trade at this point, we instance the store, the business card of which appears above. This has been recently started by Mr. Samuel B. Eshelman, who was formerly manager for Messrs. Witmer Bros. (fully noted in this volume), at this stand in the same department of trade during the space of 18 years.

This store is an integral part of the United States Block, which is a handsome frame structure having a face frontage of 60 feet by a depth of 90 feet, and is the property of Messrs. Vedder Bros. It carries a full stock of all goods in its line of the average value of $4,000.00, and transacts an annual trade aggregating $20,000.00. Special attention of millers and consumers is called to this article, this being a plant giving the best indications of becoming the leading house of its class in this section in the near future.

Mr. Eshelman is a native of Clarence Centre, Erie Co., and was born in 1839, but has resided here 19 years. He fills the political office of Township Supervisor and is also one of the Water Commissioners of the village.

KELLER & CO., Dealers in Beef, Pork, Lamb, Mutton, Veal, etc., Salt and Smoked Meats, Lewiston avenue, Suspension Bridge.

This firm consists of Mr. Jacob Keller and Mr. Philip Keller, uncle and nephew, well-established and well-known men in their line. The customers of the house invariably meet with good treatment and find a full stock of meats on hand at all seasons of the year, selections being therefore easy to make for any order. Mr. Philip Keller is a native of Suspension Bridge and was born in 1858.

GRUHLER HOUSE, J. C. Gruhler, Prop., corner Main and Ontario sts., Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mr. Joseph C. Gruhler came from Buffalo in 1875, and was born in that city in 1850. His hotel is one of the cheapest at the Falls, its rates being $1.00 per day, while its accommodation is as good as the higher-priced houses.

It has 5 sleeping-rooms, a frontage of 66 feet and a rearward depth of 140 feet, and can make room for 6 to 10 guests. Those who require cheap and good quarters should call at this house.

ROSLI'S HOTEL, at Railway Susp. Bridge, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

This is the leading hotel on the Canada side of Suspension Bridge, and has all modern improvements. It is located on Main street near the depot, and contains 15 sleeping-rooms, excellent parlors, well-stocked bar, etc., its arrangements for the comfort of guests being complete and its prices as low as $2.00 per day.

Mr. Gaspard Rosli is Swiss by birth, and was born in 1826, but has been in this line of business here 27 years.

WINDSOR HOUSE, T. F. Ellis, Prop., Niagara Falls, Ont.

The "Windsor House," which was formerly known as the "Great Western Hotel," is notable for its excellent livery, good accommodation for guests and convenient location for travelers and visitors. It has 20 sleeping-rooms, a finely stocked sample-room, and many modern conveniences, and quotes prices at $2.00 per day. Mr. T. F. Ellis is a native of England, and was born in 1828, but has resided here since 1845. He is well posted in his business and a good manager.

JOSEPH SHAW, Gate-keeper, New Suspension Bridge, Niagara Falls.

Mr Shaw is a native of London, England, and was born in 1828. He has resided at Niagara Falls since 1850, and filled his present position 15 years. Mr. Shaw is a member of the Masonic Fraternity, and belongs to St. Mark's Lodge, Lodge No. 105 A. F. and A. M., Mount Nebo Chapter R. A. M. No. 76, Drummondville, Ont., and also to the following Societies, C. O. O. F. No. 17, I. O. O. F. No. 53, N. F., Ont., N. F. Encampment, No. 76 and O. C. Friends, Dufferin Council, Drummondville, Ont. He is well known in this locality as a pleasant and obliging officer whom our visitors will be pleased to meet.

M. TALBOT, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Susp. Bridge, N. Y.

Dr. Talbot came originally from Ireland, and was born in Parsonstown, in 1846. Coming to this village in 1872, he has acquired a flourishing practice amongst the best families of the neighborhood.

CITY DRUG STORE, J. H. Parmelee, Prop., Susp. Bridge.

The City Drug Store is located on Lewiston avenue, next door to the Vedders, and carries a full stock of drugs, as well as a well-selected assortment of goods generally found in a first-class house in its line. It was opened by its present proprietor in 1880, and enjoys a good prescription trade, being noted for its accuracy and the purity of its drugs. Mr. J. H. Parmelee is a native of Connecticut, and was born in 1824. He has resided in this vicinage 20 years, and has succeeded in establishing the reputation of a painstaking business man, ever ready to do his utmost to oblige his patrons. Farmers and visitors coming into the village for goods from a drug store should make a note of the location of the "City" house.

NIAGARA BOTTLING CO.,
Messrs. Schenkel Bros.
and Messrs. Mayle & Gamm, Proprietors.

These works are located on Third street, opposite the Niagara Falls Brewing Co.'s place, and derive their supplies from the latter concern. This firm bottles, on an average, 900 doz. per week; and delivers, free to all parts of the village and Suspension Bridge, at $1.20 per doz. quarts or 60 cents per doz. pints. They employ 4 men and make a specialty of steaming their beer after it is bottled, thus making it fit to keep any length of time in any climate.

M. L. FOX, Dealer in Teas, Flour,
Foreign and Domestic Fruits.

Mr. Morris Leroy Fox was born in Onondaga Co. and has resided at the Falls 42 years. His store is tastefully arranged and fully stocked, and he quotes bottom prices, the specialty of the house being roasted and ground coffee of the best grades. All lovers of the beverage should give this stand a trial. This store is 20 x 70 feet on the main thoroughfare here, and is the ground floor of Mr. Fox's 3-floor brick block of those dimensions.

WELCH & RYAN, Dry Goods,
Falls street, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

This old established firm, located as above, is too well known to require more than general notice, it having been established here during the last two decades. It is the recognized headquarters for dry goods, carpets and oil cloths, and commands a large and increasing trade connection with the best families of this neighborhood.

EDWARD J. HAHN, Dealer in Groceries, etc., Suspension Bridge.

Mr. Edward J. Hahn is one of our native-born business men, he having first seen light in this village in 1860. He has a handsome new store, well stocked with provisions in this line, and sells at prices to compete favorably with the best grocery houses. This business was started 25 years ago by Mr. Hahn, father of the present proprietor, but passed to Mr. Louis Schmidt, and reverted to Mr. Edward J. Hahn one year ago.

This establishment will bear recommendation to the farmers and others coming in from the country for supplies, both on account of the prices and variety of its stock.

JAMES WATSON, Stoves,
Ranges and General Hardware.

As a leading concern in its line we particularize the store located on Lewiston avenue, Suspension Bridge. It is handsomely stocked with the best goods, and has also a well equipped work-shop devoted to making and repairing all kinds of tin, sheet iron and copper ware. Mr. Watson is an old settler here and has established a flourishing business, which promises to augment in importance with the natural growth and development of the industries of the village.

ZEIGER'S HOTEL, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Zeiger's Hotel is known favorably as the rendezvous of the young business men of the village, and is largely patronized by the old-time residents and visitors generally. It contains 10 sleeping rooms and has an excellent table and bar, with billiard rooms and other means of passing time pleasantly. Mr. Louis Zeiger is one of our old established business men. His house deserves mention as a well kept and withal a cheap hotel, offering the best accommodation at the lowest price, its quotation being $2.00 per day.

RAPIDS HOUSE, J. T. Eckert,
Prop., opposite Prospect Park,
Niagara Falls, N. Y.

This is a hotel deserving recommendation in respect of its moderate prices and general excellence of arrangements for the comfort of visitors. It is near all the principal points of interest, and well equipped, its charges being $2.00 per day.

HENRY S. WARE, Hardware, etc., Falls st., Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mr. H. S. Ware's hardware store is noticeable as the oldest established and most extensive of its kind here. It carries a well adapted stock of new and second-hand stoves, and all descriptions of iron and steel goods, tools, domestic utensils, farming implements, etc. This store is so widely known as to need no specific description, but is deserving of prominent mention in this connection as one of Niagara's reliable business houses, quoting metropolitan prices and the best makes of goods in its line.

A. ALDRICH, Choice Family Groceries, Susp. Bridge.

This firm was formerly known as Kennedy & Aldrich, but changed to its present appellation in 1880. It has a complete stock of crockery and glassware, flour, feed, oats, corn, etc., butter, eggs, and produce of all kinds. A specialty is made of domestic canned fruit.

LORETTO CONVENT, Niagara Falls, Ont.

The Earl of Dufferin for a number of years has annually given this institution two medals to be awarded for general proficiency. Board and tuition, per year, $150. The Loretto Convent is a Catholic institution, located on the Canada side and near the Horseshoe Fall, which it overlooks. It is under the management of the Lady Superior, to whom we refer our readers for further information or prospectus.

C. H. SHIRLEY, Dentist, Susp.
Bridge.

This office has all the most approved modern appliances for the successful operation of the most delicate dental processes, but makes a leading specialty of fine work in artificial teeth, which are here produced in the best style of art, of durable quality, and at current prices.

WM. H. DEAN, Dealer in Fresh,
Salt and Smoked Meats, Niagara Falls.

Mr. Dean has a fine store in the center of the village carrying a good supply of housekeeper's goods in his line.

LOUIS SCHMIDT, Dry Goods,
Susp. Bridge, N. Y.

Mr. Louis Schmidt formerly operated, in connection with his business as above, a grocery branch, but has recently discontinued the latter and connected his two stores for the accommodation of his increasing trade in dry goods, etc. He carries a full and well selected stock inviting the attention of the public generally and of country trade particularly.

ZYBACH & CO. Swiss Carving, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Niagara Falls has long been noted for its unique productions in the way of Swiss carvings. The bulk of these goods, which find their way to all parts of the United States, are from the handsome store and factory of Mr. John Zybach as above, who was the first settler in this line here.

Mr. Zybach has established a flourishing trade, patronized by the majority of Niagara's sight-seers.

E. REDPATH, American Indian Bazaar near the end of the New Suspension Bridge, Niagara Falls, Canada side.

Mr. Edward Redpath, whose business is summarized in the above heading, is a native of England. He has resided in this vicinage since 1855, and is at present one of the councilmen of the village.

His Bazaar is a handsome and tastefully arranged store and should receive a visit from any who may desire to procure remembrances of Niagara Falls for absent friends.

F. REGENHARDT, Flour and Feed Store.

At his old stand, on Lewiston avenue, Suspension Bridge, two doors south of Konrad Fink's, he keeps on hand the best brands of family flour, corn meal and all kinds of feed, etc., which are offered at the lowest market rate, excellent goods and small profits being the motto of the house. His selections of stock are judiciously made and prices of the lowest, his customers including the best families in the neighborhood.

IGNATZ REISS, Dealer in Bread, Cake and Choice Family Groceries.

Mr. Reiss is one of the Village Trustees, and has established a flourishing trade in his line, his recent additions to his facilities making this one of the most prominent of the double businesses in this locality.

M. SILBERBERG, Dealer in Ready-made Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Susp. Bridge.

Mr. Silberberg enjoys an excellent trade connection. His store is located on Lewiston avenue, near the depots and carries a full line of the best made goods of its class. He has on hand a fine stock of ready-made goods and is prepared to sell at the lowest prices.

W. H. PFEIFFER, Watchmaker and Jeweler, Niagara Falls.

Mr. Pfeiffer has a fine and well selected stock, and is favorably located in the business center of the village. His leading specialty is fine manufacturer's stock which is here offered at the lowest living prices and invites the attention of all desiring anything in this line.

FRED WIEDENMANN, Meat Market, Susp. Bridge, N. Y.

Mr. Fred Wiedenmann is a native of Steinheim, and was born in 1828. He has been prominently identified with the development of the natural and industrial resources of this locality, and is now a member of the Board of Directors of the Suspension Bridge Water Works Co.

His store, situated as above, carries a fine supply of meats in season and is well patronized by the old-time residents of the village.

MAHER'S WESTERN HOTEL, Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The Western, being the nearest hotel to the depot at the Falls and located as above, has facilities not surpassed at its prices in this village, its terms being $2.00 per day. This house has ample accommodation for 40 guests. It has a double frontage on Falls and Second streets, and is a substantial stone structure of 3 floors with all modern conveniences.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE CARRIAGE WORKS, Hallet, Hiller & Lammerts, Props., Ontario street, Susp. Bridge.

These men have a commodious and well equipped shop in which they manufacture every description of wagons, sleighs, buggies, carriages, etc., and pay special attention to repairing and general blacksmithing. Their facilities are complete and the quality of work turned out such as to compete favorably as to price with that of any similar shop in the county, and is specially worthy of the notice of farmers and others needing new vehicles or repairs to such as they have.

J. JACOB ANTHONY, Gate-keeper, Suspension Bridge.

Mr. Anthony is a native of Germany, born on the borders of the famous Mosel, near the Rhcin, came to this place in 1853, when eight years old and has resided here ever since. He is a member of the Liedertafel Singing Society, is a practical printer by profession, but accepted the position he now occupies one year after the erection of the bridge.

THOMAS CAIN, Gate-keeper, New Suspension Bridge.

Mr. Cain is a native of Porter, this county, and was born in 1849, but has resided here eleven years, and has been in his present employment since 1878. He is a Knight of the Maccabees, and was formerly connected with the leading hotels in Niagara Falls.

JOHN KRAMER, Boots and Shoes, Lewiston avenue, Suspension Bridge, N. Y.

Mr. Kramer is a native of Wurtemberg, Germany, born in 1836, but has resided here since 1854. He has a well stocked store, and makes a specialty of screw-fastened goods, which are the most durable and also the most economical in use. These are manufactured by Lewis P. Rose and Co. of Rochester, N. Y., and are the favorite make. Mr. Kramer has also a stock of the best selected boots, shoes and rubbers comprising new goods and bottom prices. All goods warranted are as represented and we would advise our readers to call and examine.

WITMER BROS., Millers, Niagara Falls.

On the river bank, a little above the Cataract House, is situated the grist-mill of the Witmer Bros., with four run of stone and operated by three wheels, one an "Eagle" turbine and one an old-style French Turbine, and the third a center discharge wheel. This mill was built in 1822, is a wooden structure and one of the oldest buildings in this vicinity.
